

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Fort Worth, as a recipient of federal financial assistance, does not exclude from participation, deny benefits to, or otherwise discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, gender, age, national origin, religion, or disability in admission to, participation in, or receipt of services and benefits of any of its programs and activities, whether carried out by the Hospital directly or through a contractor or any other entity with whom the Hospital arranges to carry out its programs and activities.

The Hospital does not discriminate in patient admissions, room assignments, patient services, or hiring on the basis of race, color, gender, age, national origin, religion, or disability.

The Hospital provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us. The Hospital also provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English. If you need these services, please let our staff know of your need for effective communication.

If you believe that the Hospital has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, gender identity or sex, you can file a complaint. Please contact the 504 Coordinator to file a complaint.
